

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

Safe blown in Joe Passiales' bakery, 818 Blue Island av. Hull House shaken by blast.

Bishop Paul T. Rhode urged all Catholic women to vote.

Robert Mooney, 656 Poplar st., jumped in lake in suicide effort. Rescued. Out of work.

Man and woman sought in Fairman death mystery.

Fred and Harry Stewart, 2505 S. Michigan av., taken as "green goods" men. Were arrested in Northwestern depot trying to pass stage money.

New library site to be purchased from book fines. Fines amount to $16,000 a year.

Highwaymen robbed Carl Barker, Galesburg, $40. While fleeing from Barker men snatched Mrs. Samuel Kember's purse. Purse contained $5.

Miss Mary McCormick, telephone operator, questioned in connection with disappearance of Mary Pluto, 15.

Lieut. Albert N. Hofsetter promoted to captain and from captain to chief of Evanston fire department in 8 hours.

Body of new born baby found in pasteboard box at Oakwood Cemetery.

2,000 in line at city collector's office. Were paying special tax assessment.

Harry A. C. Howard and Albert Philpot held for alleged fraud. Said to have swindled Joseph F. Darri, 6339 Kenwood av., out of $550.

Question of ousted school trustees up before Judge Foell. Judge to decide which faction constitutes majority.

Martin Colcomb, fireman, fire insurance patrol No. 2, carried out unconscious from burning building, 622 W. Randolph st. Loss $2,000.

Longer school day urged by writer in School Review. Claims it would save $30,000,000 annually and prevent delinquency.

Mrs. Anna Nelson, 34, 4344 Greenwood av., shot self. Will recover.

Vice President Charles E. Mahoney of the Western Federation of Miners was operated on for appendicitis at Englewood Hospital last night. Reported resting well today.

Mrs. Emma J. Lasco, 100, died at Scottish Old Folks' Home.

Coroner's jury returned open verdict in C. M. Fairman death mystery. Witnesses hinted murder at inquest.

Bernard J. Mahoney, assistant state's attorney, charged with marking ballots, demands retrial.

Oliver Stapleton, LaGrange, struck by elevator weight, while working on Columbus Memorial building.

William Kehoe shot aiding police in pistol battle with hold-up men. Clem Chester, 146 N. Hermitage av., and Max Brenner, 901 S. Hermitage, arrested.

Jury for Stella Czemerowska, on trial for murder of Frank Koczniski, her fiance, completed.

Trial of Mrs. Augusta Dietz and George Nurnberg for murder of woman's husband continued until March 16th.

Ald. Charles D. Twigg of 28th ward choked and robbed by two men. Lost $19 and $50 stickpin.

Seven jurors in Mrs. Louise Sear Van Keuren murder trial. Mrs. Van Keuren objected to women jurors.

Former Governor Charles S. Deenen claims prison is good thing. Says prisoners live longer than those who have liberty.

Disturbance created at Logan Square Theater, Milwaukee av., when discharged hypnotic subject exposed alleged fake. Edwin De Love held for creating trouble.

Ernest Palmer will speak on "Insurance and Fire Prevention" at North-West Side Commercial Ass'n Luncheon, Gerston's Cafe, Ashland av. and Division st., Thursday, March 12, 12:30 noon.

Claimed that Samuel Caplow, 16, 4918 Calumet av., was lured into saloon and robbed of $160. Warrants